LONG STAY PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION

You can rent your accommodation from a private owner (landlord) by :

- Agency: visits with a real estate agency are free of charge; but if you decide to rent the accommodation, you will have to pay an agency fee (generally equivalent to one month of rent).

Tip: Avoid using a list called "marchand de liste" : these are specialised agencies, also called "rental offices", which offer a list of accommodation in exchange for a sum of money but without any guarantee of finding accommodation at your convenience.

- AirBnb: <https://www.airbnb.fr/>
- Notary: Notaries propose housing for rent.
- Private owner: You can directly contact owners who list their rental advertisements online and avoid real estate agencies' fees.

Tip: Beware of scams; we advise you not to pay for your accommodation from abroad without having visited it. Legally, you should be asked no money for your first rent and/or the security deposit before signing the lease and the handover of the keys.

RENTING IN FRANCE - REGULATIONS

EURAXESS Housing Guide

In the framework of its mission to help international researchers, EURAXESS France published a guide aiming at giving you the main keys to understand the French rental system:

<https://www.euraxess.fr/france/information-assistance/accommodation>

House Insurance

House insurance is compulsory within the framework of accommodation rentals. It allows the policy holder to cover expenses related to damages caused to the accommodation itself (water and fire damage, bad weather) as well as to objects inside the accommodation.

We can help you with your subscription, don't hesitate to contact us.

Guarantor

It can be a family member, friend living and working in the European Union or legal entity who undertakes to pay on your behalf in the event that you do not pay the rent or charges: they must provide at least the same supporting document than you.

Visale Guarantee (Free):

If you don't have the possibility to have somebody to be your guarantee, you can subscribe to the Visale Guarantee. Here are the conditions:

- Being under 30 years old
- Having a Student or Researcher visa/resident permit.
