

University Diploma of French Studies (DUEF)

Objectives:

The DUEF is a diploma recognized by the University of Tours and 25 other French universities. It validates a level A1, A2, B1, B2 and C1 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The DUEF B2 or C1 allows international students who would like to pursue university studies in Tours to enroll in Bachelor's and Master's degrees after their language training.

Admission terms:

- Open to individual and exchange students (partner universities)
- High school diploma and qualification for university admission

★ Non-degree levels

Each DUEF level is a one-semester course:

- 12 weeks
- 240 hours (20h per week)

The courses focus on:

- Oral and written French
- Cultural knowledge
- French for university studies (level B2 & C1)

Calendar

- 2 enrollment periods: September and January
- End of classes: mid-January and end of May

School Fees

- 1 semester: 1405€ (exchange students) / 1605€ (individual students)
- 2 semesters: 2805€ (exchange students) / 2855€ (individual students)

The DUEF B2 and C1 offer two options:

-Option 'University studies': this option prepares the student for university studies and is dedicated to students who have a project to enroll in university studies in Tours. Students have the opportunity to choose faculty courses according to their project.

-Option 'French Culture': this option welcomes students who do not intend to enroll at the university and emphasizes French and Francophone cultures.
