

French language programs for exchange students

The University of Tours welcomes each year numerous exchange students within the framework of its mobility programs. These students mostly take field classes in the different faculties of the University. To attend these classes in optimum understanding conditions, it is recommended to have a French level standing as a B2 on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. The CUEFEE proposes several programs to help exchange students according to their goals and their level.

Calendar:

- 2 enrollment periods: September and January
- End of classes: mid-January and mid-June
