

RESEARCH APPRENTICESHIP EXCHANGE PROGRAM

SUPERVISED PROJECTS IN THE FIELD OF PSYCHOLOGY FOR INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE STUDENTS

The “Research apprenticeship exchange program” is a course unit dedicated to international exchange students coming to Tours to study psychology.

This individualized program enables students to carry out projects within a research laboratory of the Department of Psychology - Faculty of Human & Social Sciences.

It consists of a project performed in a laboratory under the supervision of a lecturer, assistant professor or professor.

The students will be evaluated by means of an oral presentation, a written report and a theory test.

The students can complete their study program with French courses for foreign students and with field courses taught in French or English.

French : from B2 language level, i.e “Upper intermediate French” or

English : from B2 language level, i.e “Upper intermediate English”
